

DEMLANG BUILDERS, INC. PRESIDENT, ROD DEMLANG, NAMED 2014 METROPOLITAN BUILDERS ASSOCIATION BUILDER OF THE YEAR

The Metropolitan Builders Association (MBA) recently hosted its annual Achievement Awards and Installation Dinner on December 4th. Rod Demlang President of Wisconsin home builder company, Demlang Builders, was presented with the prestigious 2014 Builder of the Year award. This distinguished award recognizes leaders in the building industry who exhibit integrity, strength of personal character, excellence in quality craftsmanship and the ability to navigate challenging economic times.

The MBA's Builder of the Year award has been given to one outstanding builder each year since 1953. The award is unique in that it is given by a committee of past recipients which means that in many situations, it's an award given by his peers.

Demlang's involvement with the MBA began over 18 years ago and includes service on numerous boards and committees within the Association. He has served as Past President and currently serves on the Executive Board of Directors. His most recent accomplishment is being a founding member of the business to business networking groups, which have been greatly successful in attracting new members to the Association.

"It is a great honor to be presented with the 2014 Builder of the Year award. As a longtime member of the MBA, I would like to say thank you to the Association and all of its members for presenting me with this prestigious award," said Demlang. "I am very proud and humbled to be recognized alongside my colleagues and previous Builder of the Year recipients. It is one of the most coveted honors in the home building industry."

Demlang, who came up through the ranks of the business, is very proud of his family's accomplishments and their award winning home designs. In 1999 he took over the business which has proudly served the State of Wisconsin for over 30 years. Demlang credits his mother and father for instilling a strong work ethic and wise conservative approach to the business that is reflected in everything he does.

About Demlang Builders, Inc.

Demlang Builders, Inc. is a Milwaukee home builder and development company committed to building innovative, energy-efficient, custom and semi-custom model homes throughout Wisconsin. Every Demlang home is constructed using the Demlang Energy Savings System and follows up-to-date green building practices to guarantee savings on monthly utility bills and maintenance costs. Demlang has over 30 years of award winning home building experience and a team of industry professionals that has built long lasting relationships with its clients and trade partners throughout the state. From initial design discussions to onsite owner-involvement and cloud based project management software, Demlang's team works closely with its clients to make the entire home building process as seamless and efficient as possible.

Whether looking to build a home in northern or southern Wisconsin, Demlang can make it happen. With decades of experience under one roof, Demlang is proud to be Wisconsin's Home Building Team.